ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

ROYAL—the most celebrated of all the baking powders in the world—celebrated for its great leavening strength and purity. It makes your cakes, biscuit, bread, etc., healthful, it insures you against alum and all forms of adulteration that go with the low priced brands.

STOWE

Mrs. William Willis is ill.

A. H. Royce of Johnson was a visitor here Tuesday.

A. A. Pike transacted business in Hyde Park Saturday.

H. A. Sparks has been quite poorly for a week or two past.

E. C. Mills and family are in town from Essex Junction for a few days.

Dr. Rutter of St. Johnsbury was in town Monday and Tuesday.

Chas. Gale of the University of Vermont is at home for a week or two.

Mrs. Maud Heath and son went to their new home in Johnson Sunday.

Miss Mary Moody went to New Haven, Conn., for a visit with friends, last week.

Mrs. Betsey Slayton of Waterbury is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Stafford.

Wayne, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Chaffee, is recovering from bronchitis.

Asa Oakes has returned from Moretown and is employed as book-keeper by H. E. Shaw.

Mrs. Dora Barnes returned to Waterbury Center Saturday after visiting Mrs. Gracia Tomlinson.

Owing to the lack of lights Saturday night the Stowe Montpelier basket ball game was cancelled.

Frank Baker has moved to the C. C. Robinson farm, which he will carry on for its new owner, C. L. McMahon.

A Union service will be held at the Unity church Sunday evening, with a sermon by the pastor, Rev. F. T. Crane.

Robert Hill and Miss Helen Chapin were married at the Congregational parsonage Monday evening by Rev. Lamell Davis.

Mrs. Minnie Tinkham and granddaughter, Caroline Pike returned Tuesday from a two months visit with Massachusetts relatives.

A. A. Pike is a firm believer in necessity of dehorning cattle since a playful slip of the old family cow's head Tuesday morning nearly cost him the sight of an eye. The tip of the horn entered the cheek just below the right eye and his escape was a narrow one.

A broken bolt in the shaft of the water-wheel at the Morrisville Electric Light and Power plant, which supplies power for the Mt. Mansfield Electric railroad from Stowe to Waterbury and for the electric lights in Stowe, put the railroad out of commission Friday and Saturday and electric lights were also shut off. Mails and passengers were transported by teams. The railroad service was resumed Tuesday.

Ira Fuller has sold his farm, formerly known as the Watts place on Shaw hill near Moscow to C. L. McMahon. Mr. McMahon has in consideration the erection of a summer hotel on the farm, which is admirably adapted to such a purpose, commanding as it does an unexcelled view of Mt. Mansfield and the Green mountain range on the west and the Worcester and Hog Back mountains on the east. Plans would include the running of another road from the farm to the east, joining the River road to Waterbury near the Holmes place, owned by A. J. Boyce, and the developing of the private road from the hill to the West Branch road via the C. C. Robinson place on the west.

The auditorium of the Akeley Memorial building was filled Thursday evening when the musical comedy, "The Captain of Plymouth," was given under the auspices of Stowe High School. Principal R. G. Reynolds has been in charge of the production and skilful and patient training was manifest in every detail. The part of Miles Standish was taken by Donald M. McMahon, John Alden by H. B.
